Posted in: Arts and Culture, Fairs and Festivals, Film, Upcoming Events

In the spirit of the globally-celebrated sporting event born in Athens, Greece over two centuries ago, the Los Angeles Greek Film Festival (LAGFF) is going for its own gold medal with its sixth annual event Thursday, May 31st, through Sunday, June 3rd, 2012. LAGFF will take place at the Linwood Dunn Theater on the campus of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts & Sciences' Pickford Center for Motion Picture Study in the heart of Hollywood, California. Produced by the nonprofit Eastern Mediterranean and Balkan Cultural Center (EMBCC) with the support of sponsors worldwide, the Los Angeles Greek Film Festival promotes awareness of Greek culture through the art of cinema.

The 2012 LAGFF Gold Pass includes tickets and advance entrance to all films, panels and programs; the opening and closing night champagne receptions; a deluxe program book; free parking at the Linwood Dunn Theater; and, of course, the must-have ticket to the exclusive Orpheus Awards party. In the face of the global economic crisis hitting Greece with a vengeance, the cost of the 2012 LAGFF Gold Pass has been reduced by $100 (33%) to only $200, but must be purchased online in advance at this link.
